

THE RICHMOND

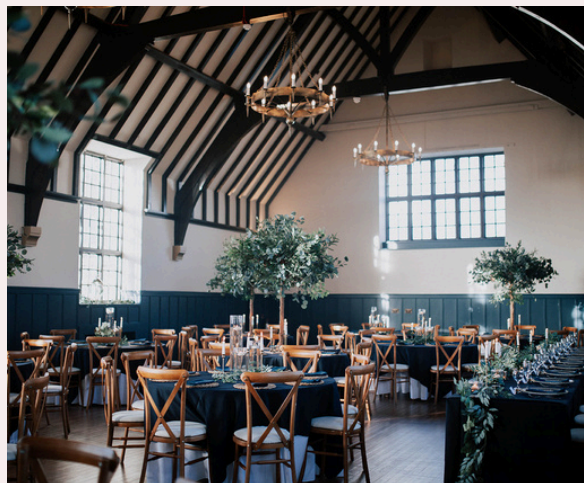

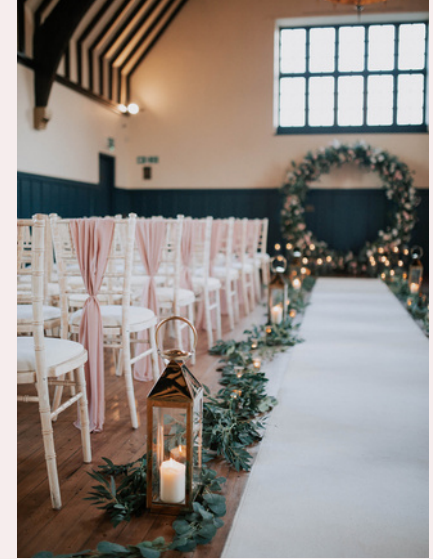

THE PERFECT BACKDROP FOR YOUR DAY

The Richmond is truly a remarkable choice for couples seeking a wedding venue that blends historic charm with modern elegance. Nestled in the heart of Ayrshire, this unique venue offers a captivating atmosphere that will leave a lasting impression on your guests from the moment they arrive.

As you celebrate your love, you'll enjoy exclusive access to The Richmond, allowing you to personalise every detail of your special day to reflect your unique style and vision. The versatile space caters for smaller, intimate ceremonies to grand receptions up to 120 seated guests, ensuring that your experience is tailored to your needs.

Natural light pours in through the original piend-roofed windows, creating an enchanting ambience that enhances the beauty of the elegantly appointed interior. The Richmond retains many of its historical features, providing a stunning backdrop that harmoniously blends the past with contemporary design.

THE HISTORY

The Richmond, with its rich history dating back to 1924, stands as a testament to the area's vibrant heritage and rustic charm. This magnificent venue, built on land generously donated by Lord Kennedy and funded by John Richmond, showcases the architectural brilliance of James Miller, one of Scotland's foremost architects of the early 20th century.

Inside, The Richmond exudes grandeur with soaring ceilings and striking beams, whilst maintaining a cosy village hall ambience that adds to its unique character.

Whether you dream of a romantic ceremony or a lavish celebration, The Richmond promises to be a memorable setting for your unique wedding in Scotland. Make history together in this extraordinary venue, where every moment is crafted to perfection.
